NEWS OF ALL BRANCHES OF SPORT

McGraw, Mike the Mascot, And the Evidence All In On Giants vs. Braves Case

Disappearing Sun Throws Yesterday's Game at the Polo Grounds, and Wildcat Blames Setbacks to Use of Raw Catcher Alert at "Backing Up"

By Charles Somerville.

W-WHAT'S the use? It's all a joke! Were we or were we not yesterday all set to see the Glants pick up their hand-grenades and blow the Boston dugout to Canarsie? Or some worse place?

If possible?

And what-your honors, I appear on appeal-comes off? The very sun starts kidding us!

Question: Will you or will you not make answer that yesterday at 10.14 A. M. the defendant gun showed up with a signal that there would be a game?

Answer: Yes, sir, it did.
Q. And then ducked back into the

A. Yes, sir.
Q. A heavy, opaque firmament

Very heavy.
But reappeared at 11.42 A. M.7
Yes, mr. Q. And again at 1.247

A. Yes, sir. Q. And again at 2.127

You said it. Lawyer Potgut: The witness will answer in one way only, and that is

A. Sure, the sun was shining that time you said. And it came through again at $.03. Q. Do you remember what your grandmother's name was at 3.72 o'clock; yesterday?"

A. Yes, sir,
Q. Then you can perhaps tell us what the sun was doing at 3.12?

. It come out again! O. For how long !

A. One and one-fifth seconds. Q. And then? There wasn't no ball game,

May I ask of the witness-why?
Because the

ann did a Nicky.
Q. A what?
A. Nicky.

O. Nicky whom? A. Arnstein.
Lawyer Potgut: In view of the fact,
your Honor, that outside in the corrifor seventy-five detectives with En-right pluggin' his ears has shot their-selves, possibly to death, may I suggest that court adjourn?

His Honor: Aw, let 'em ride. Plug the witness to give this awhaw-gust tribunal an earful on just what Stallin's is carrying that crimps my old pal

You heard His Honor?

A. He better do like you said and ad-

No satisfaction there. So I went up cat?"

"Sure, I'm a wildcat!" howled to the Polo Grounds. I met the peanut to the Polo Grounds. I met the peanut boys coming away. And you can get at yourself that there's nothing to be written about bags lost, gade or stolen when the "Five-a-Bags" are quitting the battlefield.

"Sure, I'm a wildcat howed Mike.

Then he rubbed his right whiskers with his left hind paw.

"But," the animal added, "at that, just now you'd oughter see McGraw!"

Hold Shows.

By John Pollock.

Boxing Comes Back in Providence

DODGERS FAIL TO KEEP UP GOOD WORK OF OPENING BATTLE

Baseman in First Game. Forgot It in Next.

By Richard Freyer.

HE joke about the pig's tall and morning-both being one and the same thing-twirley (too early) always was good but this doesn't go Brooklyn ball team. Son times they are good, very, very good, but when they are bad they are ter-rible. The opening gains of the pres-ent race for the National League bunting showed the Dodgers all I found just one guy to talk to. He was in a cage under Mr. Brannick's
"House of All Requests"—the public office of the Giants. His name is Milgs. You know who he is,
I guess—McGraw's 13ascot. HERE

blow to centre. There was no neces-sity for Krueger's remaining at his station behind the plate. As he run to back up third Koney could very easily and nicely have come home and taken care of opponents. Perhaps Rowdy Elliott and Zack Tay-lor will become acclimated to backing up the initial and third sacks. We his southpaw mitt through the bars to greet me. I didn't shake hands.

It wasn't going to be that kind of is one thing can be said in I put it flat up to Mike. I said:
"You've had a pretty stiff touting around this town as the Giants' mas-Chuck Ward's favor. The short-stop is out there trying every min-ute of the game, and during the two contests he has pulled off some pretty plays. He has a had habit of Have you anything to say for self with Boston doing like it's "I been doped," says Mike. "They been feedin' me cooked meat, an' on my home grounds I allers took it makings of a big leaguer. Elliott and Taylor, the new backstops, have also shown some nice work behind the plate. After Long Lapse of 20 Years

Three Hours of Wrestling Prove Stecher Better Man Than Lewis in Great Match

Champion Retains Title Before Most Enthusiastic

By Vincent Treanor. HEAD scissors and arm lock but when they are bad they are learning. The following days contest from the special part of the property of the following showed the programment of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the special part of the following days a contest from the following days and the following days a contest from the following days a contest from the following days and the following

After about fifteen minutes Lewis put the headlock on Stecher, but Joe, having a head like a peanut, slipped out of it almost before the crowd had time to applaud him. Then it was the head to head stuff again, which meant to the big audience nothing more than what Leach Cross used to pull to keep the mob on edge. So far there was nothing to choose be-tween the men. It looked like one of nose things. After twenty-three minutes Stecher but Lewis wiggled away with very apparent case when he was ready. So far the match looked bad to us it seemed as if both men were filled with the notion that they must give the crowd something to enthuse about before they actually started to win.

Allia, Chalment

the 71st Regiment Armory ended the most gruelling wrestling match ever seen in this city. Three hours and Lewis ought to win quickly, but they four minutes had elapsed from its beginning. Lewis lay on the mat like a should do. They feel that the crowd dying duck in a thunderstorm, stunfore the real stuff. One of these fore the real stuff. One of these ned, weakened and defeated, for fully days a good wrestler is going to aprought Lewis down with an arm-up in the air. Great stuff so far, and across at Dominey.

by contests he has pulled off some pretty plays. He has a had habit of messing up grounders, but a good habit of recovering in time to nab his man offsets the former. Chuck has a strong arm and is fairly accurate in his throwing.

The recruits have all showed promising form and it is an uncertainty as to which ones Robbie will let go when he begins cutting down his team. Mohart has worked in but tone inning in which he set the Phillies back scoreless: Neis has participated in the two contests participated in the two contests meanwhile was as cool and unemparticipated in the two contests participated in the two contests makings of a big leaguer. Elliott

CLOSING STOCK QUOTATIONS

% Great Nor, Ore ...

Inspiration Copper.

Interpreta Con

Int. Nickel

Kenneng

Lockswaren estent. Lee Ruis, & Tire.

"The Great Impersonation"

PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Tense Mystery and Excitement Blend in This Thrilling Story

"Which is that, Dr. Schmidt?" she

"The Englishman, by God!" Schmidt

her words.
"Everard Dominey," she cried, "what

CHAPTER XXVIII.

HE patter ceased and began again. Into the open there came a dark the crowd something to enthuse about before they actually started to win.

Wrestling isn't a fake, as many iEAD scissors and arm lock supported by Joe Stecher on Ed. Stranger Lewis last night at Stranger Lewis last night at Regiment Armory ended the And maybe they can't do this with resulting metal and maybe they can't do this with resulting metal and something to enthuse about before they actually started to win.

Whape, the irregularity of its movements swiftly explained. It moved at first upon all fours, then on two legs, then on all fours swered coolly. "You and You Bagasstein together planaed the murder of Sir Everard Dominey in East Africa, and I caught you creeping across the principals seem to think they window, now barely half a dozen yards from where he was crouching. Demost with a kirch window, now barely half a dozen yards from where he was crouching. Demost with a kirch window, now barely half a dozen yards from where he was crouching. Demost with a kirch window, now barely half a dozen yards from where he was crouching. The planaed the murder of Sir Everard Dominey in East Africa, and I caught you creeping across the foor just now with a knife is your hand. That'll do for you. Any questions to ask, Seaman?"

The crowd something to enthuse about before they actually started to win.

Wrestling isn't a fake, as many again. It crept nearer and nearer, and Dominey as he watched. Sir Everard Dominey in East Africa, and I caught you creeping across the foor just now with a knife is your hand. That'll do for you. Any questions to ask, Seaman?"

None." Was the surface planaed. It is simply a game where the window, now barely half a dozen yards from where he was crouching. Demos the principal and I caught you creeping across the foor just now with a knife in your hand. That'll do for you. Any questions the principal and the moved at first upon all fours. The planaed the murder of Sir Everard Dominey in East Africa, and I caught you creeping across the principal and the moved at first upon all fours. The pla geream. Dominey waited till even its cohoes had died away. Then he ran a few steps, bent double, and stretched out his hands. Once more, for the last time, that devil's cry broke the deep stillness of the August morning, throbbing a little as though with a new fear, dying away as though the fingers which crushed it back down the straining throat had indeed crushed with it the last flicker of some unholy life. When Dr. Harrison made his hurwhen Dr. Harrison had a more ried appearance, a few moments later, he found Dominey seated upon the terrace, furiously smoking a cigarette. On the ground, a few yards away, lay something black and mo-

Hos of them rolled out of a tight place when the clock registered an hour and twenty-one minutes. First Lewis had Stecher, then the stranger rolled right into the soissors only to extricate himself by going under the ropes and into the press stand. Of course it was, all off as far as a fail was concerned. The crowd was clean up in the air. Great stuff so far, and across at Dominey.

"So you've got him at last!" she gasped.
"Mrs. Unthank." Dominey said sternly, "you are in time to accompany Four son to the hospital at Norwich. The car will be here in two minutes. I have nothing to say to you. Your own conscience should be sufficient punishment for keeping that poor creature alive in such a fashion and ministering during my absence to his accursed desires for "And your life here has been a lie!"

"Everard Dominey," she cried, "what have you done with Leopold von Rasastein."

"He met with the fate." Dominey replied, "which he had prepared for me, We fought and I conquered."

"I killed him." Dominey echoed. "it was a matter of necessity. His body sleeps on the bed of the Blue River."
"And your life here has been a lie!"

Help him bit, Dominey ordered as though he had retive. He seemed as though the had retive. He seemed as though he had morrow."

"You came to me at Cape Town."

r the two men he muttered; "you had all Von Rameter prisoner gastain's letters; you knew his his-in Dominey's own affairs—had driven bominey from his study out on to the terrace. In a chair by his side lounged Eddy Pelham, immacuiate in a suit of white flannels. It was the fifth day since the mystery of the Black Wood had been solved.

"The great God above us!" Seaman ground white here," the young man remoirs! He has the Dominey as the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room, and you do and say nothing! Is his life a sacred thing? Has he none of your secrets in his charge?"

"The great God above us!" Seaman ground, with a sudden white horror in his face. He has the Dominey as the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor parted with Dominey at the door of the latter's room. The doctor

"Still unconscious," Dominey re-plied. "The doctors, however, seem perfectly satisfied. Everything de-pends on her waking moments."

The young man abandoned the sub-ject with a murmur of hopeful sym-

The young man in flannels glanced across at Dominey and amiled. "I demand again." Schmidt shouted, "to know by what right I am treated as a criminal?"

"At last!" he exclaimed. "Denner und!— My God, Dominey, what is thank God that our master has abler thin?"
"Thirteen years ago," Dominey ex-attended."

Dominey threw open the windows which led on to the terrace and stood on one side. She passed by without a glance at him and disappeared. Eddy came strolling along the ter-race a few moments later.

one thing I have always been curious about. How did you manage to keep that fellow Wolff when there wasn't a war on, and he wasn't breaking the law?"

The young man grinned.

"We had to stretch a point there old dear," be admitted. "Finns of a fortress, eh?"

"Do you mean to say that he had"

plans of a fortress upon him?"

absence to his accursed desires for absence to his accursed desires for vengeance. "And your life here has been a lie!" "On the contrary, it has been a lie!" "On the contrary, it has been a lie!" "On the contrary, it has been a lie!" "Picture postcard of Norwick truth." Dominey objected. "I assured you at the Cariton, when you first spoke to me, and I have assured you at the Cariton, when you first spoke to me, and I have assured you at the Cariton, when you first spoke to me, and I have assured you a dozen times since, that I was Evertard Dominey. That is my name. That is who I am."

Seaman's voice seemed to come from a long way off. For the moment the unnatural restraint, found all his Seaman's voice seemed to come from at the passing from his life of this way.

Seaman's voice seemed to come from a long way off. For the moment the man had neither courage nor initiative, the seemed as though he had received some sort of stroke. His mind was travelling backward.

Seaman's voice seemed to come from at the passing from his life of this mind the man had neither courage nor initiative. He seemed as though he had received some sort of stroke. His mind was travelling backward.

"You came to me at Cape Town." the met Dominey's eager glance with a little nod.

"You came to me at Cape Town." the muttered; "you had all Yon Rather doing all right," he declared.

CHAPTER XXIX.

CHAPTER XXIX.

CHAPTER XXIX.

The Princess suddenly interrupted there was seemed on fire.

"What are you, you two?" she cried. Stretching out her hands toward she from the form of earth—clods—creatures without courage and intelligence? You can let him stand there—the Englishman who has before any lover, who has before the door of the latter's room.

"I shall remain with her for an nour or so," be said. "After that I shall leave her entirely to herself, and there in case there's a charge?"

"The great God above us!" Seaman groaned, with a sudden white horror in his face. He has the Prince's memoirs! He has the Prince's memoirs! He has the Kaiser's map!"

"On the contrary," Dominey replied, "both are deposited at the Foreign Office. We hope to find them very useful a little later on."

"I shall be here," Dominey promised. The minutes passed into hours, unsecurity that it is easy chair, attred by a tunulanus wave of passionate emotion. The memory of those earlier days of his return came back to him with all the return came back to him with all the later on." Black Wood had been solved.

Black Blac

Pain after Eating Loss of Appetite

Gas Heartburn Acid Stomach Dizziness Colic No Cramps

Sure Relief

BELLANS
INDIGESTION
29 CHAPS
6 BELLANS 6 BELL-ANS Hot water Sure Relief

BELL:ANS

Authorities Give American on the star bout of six rounds at the National Authorities Give American of the star bout of six rounds at the National Owner of the Start Sta and a guarantee of $7,000 for fighting Jack Lawlor of Savannah an eight-round bout at the Arena A. C. of Jersey City on next Friday night.

is, and it's exactly the way looked yesterday just before he put

Pinky Mitchell, the lanky lightweight of Mil-After twenty years boxing contests will again be witnessed in the city of Providence, R. I., on Monday night, This show will be held under the applies of the American Legion Post there at the Infantry Hall, which actually in the sessing.

Contest of Providence of Buffalo will clash in a formation of the Cream City of Wisconsin Contest of the Contest of the Contest of the Contest of the Contest of Wisconsin Contest of Contest of the Contest of Co commodates 3,000 persons. The Polike Commission has granted the American Legion a permit to stage regular weekly shows, and for the opening one Matchmaker Johnny Toomey has signed up Pai Moore of Secretary Police of the Memphis, Tenn., to meet Roy Moore femphis, Tenn. to meet Roy Moore in a twelve-round contest. Match-maker Toomey expects to stage shows in the State Armory in that city in about two weeks.

In a letter just received from thatter Harver, who is still over in England with Ted "Kid" Lovid, but the still over in England with Ted "Kid" Lovid, but the still over in England with Ted "Kid" Lovid, but the still over in England with Ted "Kid" Lovid, but the still over in England with the still over the England with t parier sers that he is naving hard look in tryig to induce Johnny Hasham, the English weiter—gint champion, to meet Lewis in a bout for the slight champion, to meet Lewis in a bout for the tie. Harver further states that Hasham has rebeneen, the New England fighter for twelve rounds and to Oght Lewis on three occasions and that at the National A. C. of Lewiston, Mr., on next we'd to fight Lewis on three occasions and that a expects to return to America with Lewis next Priday night. As both lade are game aggressive with. Willis Fackson, who fights Johnny Martin of this bosts between little men ever witnessed in that Buttling Levinsky, the legitimate light heavy-selight champion, is to receive a guarantee of $1,000 with an option of 50 per cent, of the gross receipts for meeting Toro Melcheir, the premising Chicago heavyweight in a ten-round best at Kenesha, Wie, on the night of April 28 Melchoir is considered one of the best ing follows pro-dured in Chicago in years.

The North Jensey Sporting Club of Hackensack C. J., will stage a bottog show to-night at which Frankie Olsen, the Pearl River lightweight, will hook ut with Young Rector of Jersey City in the star book of eight rounds. In the semi-final, Sallor Hurns of Little Perry will go against Kolsakle of West New York for eight rounits.

Johnny Griffitha, the crack well-weight of Johnny Griffitta, the craft well-wouldst of Alreat, O., who is shortly to be materied to meet Willie Blyan of New Brumselck, N. J., in a inclusive round four at Akren, O. on May 8, was to-tay signed up for another ballie by his manager, Pounty Wiebl. His opposite to this serior will be Back Heiton. They will be file of file or rounds to a decision at a large of tests at Akren. to a decision of a baccomit park at Akron. O. on Memorial Day afternoon.

Also Goldstein, one of the best little follows now posing, is booked for two figure by his new manager, Willie Lewis, the retired middleweight. His first will be with Joe Syder of Newark for twelve running for a decision, at Waterings, Conn., tronight, and his second with Dave Astey at hite Plains on Mondey night.

As the Camden Hommson we tak, which is only As the Cainfed recommended the words would across the fiver from Philadespha. As starting right-round bouts, the promoters of the different bouting comes in Philadespha are thinking self-ously of analog the authorities of their city to able a threat to recrease their bouts from all the ight rounds. They caim that the Causies bout

OUTSIDE MARKET.

1	The second control of	CARL T
1	MISCELLANEO
1	1400 Arms Coal	318	3
l	500 Am Cramund 100 Am Tobacco H			15
1	800 British Am Tob Coup	71%	Til.	14
ı	800 Car Light	25	21%	-4
Ì	95 Carbon Steel
1	400 Cuban Am Nug		318	12
Ì	300 Gen Asphalt	99	3874	9
ı	800 Grape Ota		140	- 2
ı	500 Grape Ola of	214	177
	600 Ind Packing			- 6
	100 Kerstone Selether	13%	1716
	400 Leg Mar Coal			9
	100 Nor Am Paper	114
	500 Grabeum Circuit	5%	3%	10
	200 Perfection Tire	23	32%	-0
	600 Pressure Tire	236	719
	700 Freshurn Tire		- 3
	700 Radio Com	254	2.56
y	100 Hadio Com pf	1%	2.60
	100 Spiorr Mfg new	29	29	-84
	210 Stuce Motor	249	244	$3
	1900 Sweets Cis	2%	276
	200 Times Sq Auto	34	333	13
	890 Triangle Film	34	79.
ĺ	200 U S High Speed Tool	712	100	- 13
ì	STANDARD OF	146
t	100 Anglo-Am Oil		26
١	COLL ST. COLD LAND SEC. OF LINE		436
١	INDEPENDENT	OTUS.
	600 Allen Oil	17%
	$000 *Allied Oli	41	41
į	2009 Buscon Wicoming	950	416
ı	400 Cordina & Co	- 41	14
	500 Elk Basis Pet	8	334
i	1000 Federal Oil	15%	F16.
ľ	600 Gleurock Oil	176	736
	460 Guffey Gulespie	21%	2%
	300 Granada		21/4
	100 Home Oil	2134	112
	Long Mudain 491		249
	1000 Hudson Oil	616
	500 Kay County Gas
i	1200 King Petroleum	274	274
	2200 Livingston	714	3.8
	500 Maracaibo Oil	21%	1%
	100 Moretty City		2114
	500 Metropolitan Pet	3119	E836
	300 Omar Gil	100	3.54
	600 Pennok Ott	654	5%
	Total Athernation Warre	40	8%
Į	200 Phillips Pets rts	252
1	200 Producer & Refiners	80.00	100 000
	3:00 Eran 001	3.86	11.60
	200 Produce & Roftners 300 Bran 034 500 Sall Greek Con 500 Sequesan 031 400 Sequesan 031 500 Petas Co w 3500 United Tex 000 200 Venters	411	0.97%
	400 Shelly Off	11/2	11/12
	500 Tetas Co w)	2114	- 64
	2500 United Tex Oil	114
i	200 Ventura 200 Venturia Gil new 200 Whelan	100	10
l	300 Whilah	- 1	1
	MINING
ì	GARRA ATRACANA ATRACAS	3.8	7
Ĺ	17330 Afford & More	150	4
ĺ	GROS Alax-Ris Fol 60% Arizona Milver 17350 "Hose & Monte 22% Calumes & Jerome	1	- 3
1	Books, Alleren Britanian, B.P.	N. 30	17

+ 's Greene Canapea. + 's Haskell & Barket Am. Samatra Am. Drug Myssl... Am. Haprons Am. Hide & Leath, 20% 24 112% 112% - % Int. Paser. 102% 102% Am. Lacomotive : Am. S. & C. Corp. 2344 Am. S. & Refin. 128% Am. Negar 2% Au. T. & T. Co . 103% Am. Wool 133 9 Am. W. Puper of . 47% Am Too recommittee. 08% 38% Ann Arbor B R. .. 12 Assets Heatingthin ... Ass. Dis Gotels ... All traff & W 1 . . Baldwin Loco. Baltimore & Ohio 178.34 Beth Motors ... 31% 90% 97 10% Booth Fisheries . . 9% Blaten Union Gas 3% Butte & Sup. S. Car. Purking Cortain-Teed Fred .54% - 33 5% (h) Pass Tost 6% (h) R. I. & Par. Con. & Northwort Rs Cel Tracelegionis -Continental Candy +15 41% 42 96% 95% 4 12% 12% 11% 11% + 1% Con. Textile Corp., 42% 41% Driving Minore:

President Totals (Santon Wil, & W.

18% 13% 18% 13% 164% 168

May Dopt, Stopes Mex. Petroloum.

1016

NA STREET

physique and so was all so to your man."

Dominey smiled.

"Mine is only the local yeomanry rigout." he replied. "They will mub you for the vinards!"

Dominey stepped back through the open windows into his study as Pelham strolled off. He was seated in his deak, poring over some letters, when a few minutes later Seaman was unhered into the room. For a single moment his muscles tightened his frame became tense. Then he realized his visitor's outstretched hands of welcome and he relaxed. Seaman was perspiring, veciferous and excited.

Seaman was perspiring, veciferous and excited.

Seaman was perspiring, veciferous and excited.

The correct reply "I have just landed from head to foot. For a moment she lead hes form East Africa. We knew nothing of the war when we started. I came to expose that man. He is a mine postor—a murderer! He has killed a German nobleman."

We knew nothing of the vectod has killed a German nobleman."

Everard!" she cried.

We'very live woman.

"Everard!" she cried.

He took her into his arms. At their first less she thrilled from head to foot. For a moment she lead hes head upon his shoulder.

"Oh, I have been so silly!" she confers the same in postor—a murderer! He has killed a German nobleman."

Why am I treated like this?"

That is my name, air," was the foot. For a moment she lead hes head upon his shoulder.

"Oh, I have been so silly!" she confers the every live woman.

"Everard!" she cried.

The took her into his arms. At their first less she thilled from head to foot. For a moment she lead hes head upon his shoulder.

"Oh, I have been so silly!" she confers the same in th

"None," was the surly reply.
"You are well-advised," the young man remarked coolly. "Within the last few days, your house in Forest
Hill and your offices in London Wall have been searched."
"You have said enough." Seaman declared, "Fate has sope availant me

The silence which reigned for sev-eral seconds was intense and profound. The coolest of all four was perhaps Dominey. The Princess was pale with a passion which seemed to sob behind Dominey was watching the dust from the two cars which were dis-appearing down the Avenue. "Tell me, Eddy," he asked, "there's

"Still unconscious." Dominey replied. "The doctors, however, seem perfectly satisfied. Everything depends on her waking moments."

The young man abandoned the subject with a murmur of hopeful sympathy. His eyes were fixed upon a little cloud of dust in the distance. "Expecting visitors to-day" he asked. "Should not be surprised," was the somewhat laconic answer. "Eddy Pelham, his hands, in his pockets, but a very aleri glean in his somewhat laconic answer. "The young man stood up, yawned and stretched himses."

"I'll make myself scarce," he said "Joyel" he added approvingly, lingering for a moment. "Jolly well cut, the tunic of your uniform, Dominey! If a country in peril seer decides to waivs the matter of my indifferent physique and send me out to the resule, I shall go to your man."

The young man stood answer. "The shock of his surprise and was now completely unnerved, was the matter of my indifferent physique and send me out to the resule, I shall go to your man."

The doctors, however, seem a struggle of the princess, seemed like a thing far off, the coing can man small and the manifold to the manifold manifold. The latter was the first to break the curious silence. "What have I done" he demanded. "Mine is only the local yeomanry "Doctor Schmidt?" Eddy asked.

"I'll a doctors, however, seem the like a thing far off, the coing can manifold manifold to do that I had a weapon or that I were a man!"

"Expect the visitors to-day" he asked from the window, "four to two the other way, I think, what?"

Eddy Pelham, his hands, in his pockets, but a very aleri glean in his usually vacuous face, stood in the window, "four to two the other way. I think, hands gripping its sides, his ergrived upon the slowly widening crack in the panel. It was as it had beet before. She stooped low, stood up again and came toward him. From behind an unseen hand closed the panel. She came to him with he arms outstretched and all the word derived things of life and love in her she was now completely unnerved, was he mattered from the vi